$2,100,000,000 General Relief Program Will Be Introduced in House Today, Party Chief Says.

WASHINGTON, May 26 .- (AP)-Bearing the approval of house democrats, the $2,100,000,000 Garner relief bill was completed tonight almost coincidentally with the enunciation of a statement from administration quar-ters that a public works program would be a "shock to public confidence."

The Garner bill carries a $1,047.-000,000 public works provision. It also would provide $100,000,000 to be administered by President Hoover for direct relief and would add $1,000,000,000 to the capital of the Reconstruction Corporation for loans trucking. The expression of administration opposition to a public works program came from Secretary Mills in a statement dealing specifically with the program advanced several nights ago by former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York.

PARIS, May 26.—(P)—General John J. Pershing attacked prohibition as a source of racketeering today, attributing it to the apathy of the American people.

Passage of the eighteenth amendment "was simply done through the negligence of the citizen who now sits up and howls," he declared with unwonted vigor at a luncheon of the American Club today.

Scoring those who failed to vote in the primaries, the general said: bond issue to cover the building proj-thority.

However, the measure provides for a tax of 14 of a cent a gallon on gasoline to meet the interest and sinking fund requirements on the bonds issued by the treasury for the pro-

The month of May is often marked by a round of banquets, either for school children, college functions or club and church affairs. Nonprofessionals may be called upon to oversee or manage these affairs. To help such people the following helpful suggestions are given:

Selection of the Menu.

Without doubt the chief consideration in the amateur service of banquets will be economy—the banquet must be served on a limited amount of money. It is, therefore, necessary to select foods and table appointments that will be attractive, palatable and suitable to the occasion, and at the same time simple and economical. The first impression the table creates should be favorable. It is possible, through ingenuity and patience, to create a most attractive table from crepe paper, paper bonbon cups and old caps, if ferns and flowers are not available. Usually someone on the refreshment committee has growing flowers at this time of the year. Others in the group may yield potted flowers or plants upon due per-

Cocktail Suggestions.
Fruit cocktail remains the favored first course for most banquets. The fruits should always be fresh, or else the canned fruit salad may be mixed with fresh fruits. The following combinations will be found pleasing and different:
1.—Grapefruit or orange baskets.
Use smilax for a handle or place a small sprig of it on the plate. Use grapefruit or orange sections in the baskets.
2.—Add a sprig of mint or little of the Green River syrup to the fresh fruit mixture.
3.—Half a melon filled with selec-

fruit mixture.

3.—Half a melon filled with selection of fruits, garnished with a sprig of mint.

4.—Diced or balls of melon served in orange syrup.

5.—Fresh pineapple and strawberry cocktail.

Dinner Accessories.

Dinner Accessories.

Many people forget that the charm of the old-fashioned home dinner centers about the home-canned preserved fruits or pickles or jellies which the housewife sets upon the company table. Some tea rooms and hotels try to inject this element in their menus by passing these food accessories.

A favorite one of today is filled celery stalks. The foundation is cream or roquefort cheese. The cream cheese may have chopped stuffed olives mixed with it, or chili sauce. The cleaned stalks of celery are filled level full with the mixture, chilled and served on a plate with stalks radiating from the center. Or place them in an old-fashfoned silver bread tray, lengthfashfoned silver bread tray, length-

Saute'd pineapple slices or apple rings are favorites. Spiced fruits are always de luxe accompaniments. Preserves of all kinds, provided they are rich and unusual, are permitted.

rich and unusual, are permitted.

Salad Wafers.

Many people prefer the square or oblong salted crackers for salad service, but there are many other good things just as economical and easy to prepare. Marshmallow melted on a cracker is good for sweet salads. Thin wafers, with cinnamon, butter and sugar mixture melted on them; coconut sprinkled over a buttered surface offers interesting possibilities.

Thin ribbon sandwiches are quite the thing. Tiny diamond-shaped or other small horseradish sandwiches are wonderful with jellied salads. Creamed cheese or butter fillings for tiny, open-faced sandwiches are good, too. Cheese straws in all shapes and sizes are easy to make. Many other sizes are easy to make. Many other varieties may be purchased.

Desserts.

1.—Sherbet frozen in souffle cups, paper ones.

2.—Ice cream baskets.

3.—Ice cream ordered in fancy shapes.

4.—Cake baskets, Cup cakes and

4.—Cake baskets, Cup cakes and ice cream.
5.—Ice cream pie—filling of preserves, served as pie.
6.—Strawberry or other fresh fruit shortcakes, usually made for individual service.
7.—Home-made pie, a la mode.
And, of course, as a finisher, a cup of really well-made coffee with rich cream. This cream may be extended by using one part evaporated milk, one part rich cream and two parts of milk to each quart.

STRAWBERRY TIME IS HERE. STRAWBERRY TIME IS HERE.

Aside from Mother's Day, May Day, moving week and Memorial Day, the month of May is noted for the first of the home-grown strawberries, and fresh strawberry shortcake.

White Lily is the finest flour for cakes and fine baking money can buy regardless of price, package or claims. It is more than 30 times as fine as ordinary flour. Only one-fourth of the grain, the rich creamy heart of selected, soft winter wheat is good enough for it. No need to pay a premium price for a so-called cake flour in small package, when you can buy White Lily at its moderate price (in regular flour sacks) and use the same flour economically for all baking purposes.

Other Interesting Ways to Serve Berries.

For breakfast, or for first course luncheon, there is no more delightful service of fresh strawberries than to pick out perfect berries, leave the hulls on them, wash them carefully and drain. Get them good and cold. Serve them on a glass plate which has a small paper doily placed in the center of it. The doily is covered with fine powdered sugar, around the outside of which is placed a circle of the berries, points inward. They are eaten by picking them up by the hulls, dipping them in the sugar, and biting them off the hulls. Finger bowls follow as for grapefruit course.

Store ice cream is glorified when it becomes a fresh strawberry sundae, made at home. The purchased ice cream is sliced or served, then covered with ice-cold, very much sweetened crushed fresh strawberries. Top off with one perfect berry and a spoonful of whipped cream.

Presidential Candidate Will Remain in City About Two Days.

NEW YORK, May 26 .- (4)-Gov rnor Franklin D. Roosevelt, his face well tanned by the Georgia sun, returned to the state of his past political battles today and stoutly re-fused to be led into a discussion of any public question.

He was believed, however, to have lelved into his chances for winning the democratic presidential nomina tion in a visit he made immediately after his arrival with Colonel Edward M. House, the late President Wilson's confidential adviser.

Neither would comment on the visit and the governor's associates termed it merely a friendly visit of farewell to Colonel House, who started today for his annual summer vacation in New England.

Others attempted to read into the matter a connection with the Texas delegation whose 48 convention votes are pledged to Speaker John N. Garner. They recalled that Colonel House in 1912 held the Texas convention delegation for Woodrow Wilson and saw in Roosevelt's visit with him an indication the governor places much reliance in the possible influence Colonel House might have in winning him the support of Texas de-

Boredom is commonly regarded as an affliction, yet the ordinary person finds it useful as fodder for his vanity.

When he confesses that certain people bore him to tears, he is making a boast. He thinks his boredom proof of superiority, and his confession says in effect: "These people tire me because they are not as witty or intelligent as I."

But he is fooling himself.

With few exceptions, we are bored only by people of our own class. The faults that annoy us most are the faults of our own kind, as the ongs that enrage us most are the wrongs endured by those we regard

So in this matter of boredom, we ignore the tiresome performance of one who is beneath us and find secret satisfaction in the asininity of a superior, but our minds sicken with resentment and shame and a consciousness of tribal disgrace when one of our own kind and class reveals the nakedness of his wearisome stupidity.

But boredom is something more than a confession of brotherhood with the bore. It is also an explanation of the brotherhood. The person most easily bored is not the one who understand most but the one who sees least to understand—the one who lacks discernment and scientific curiosity.

Left alone in the midst of rare fossils, the child is bored for want of a doll and the flapper for want of a boy friend; but the scientist, knowing the value of fossils, rejoices in the discovery of a storehouse of knowledge. There is nothing anywhere to bore the superior mind.

When you can neither define nor detect nor measure a hypothetical factor you are justified in doubting that it exists. That's my argument all complete. I doubt that there is any such condition or influence as resistance.

Perhaps the best explanation I can make for the different degrees of immunity is to remind you of the parable of the seed which fell on stony ground and the seed which fell on good ground. The ground has various degrees of fertility or of barrenness. Ground in which the seed grows poorly has a degree of immunity, or call it resistance if you prefer, against that particular seed.

The strategy of the sales tax and anti-sales tax forces is a little confused in its psychology.

Both sides joined, as did those who favor higher income taxes, in pushing the new "nuisance" levies voted today, and all for different reasons. Champions of the sales tax hold that the more "nuisance" taxes are voted, the greater will be the protest, and the likelier the substitution of, the general manufactures tax for the specialized levies.

Those who oppose the tax are intent upon filling the gap left by reduction of automobile and other taxes, so that there will be no need for additional revenue. statesmanlike direction of the work of this committee.

The Senate deals with both national and international problems. Mr. Crisp served on the World War Debt Funding Commission, which was charged with the responsible duty of salvaging as much as possible of the ten billion dollar debt of the Ailies to the United States. He, therefore, has intimate knowledge of the attitude of foreign governments and their relations to the United States. Twice during the present session of Congress he has declared on the floor of the House his opposition to reviving the War Debt Commission as recommended by the President, as there could be but one purpose for it, namely, scaling down the debts of foreign governments to this country. The Senate must pass on treaties with Foreign nations, so Mr. Crisp's close study of European conditions eminently qualifies him for this type of service.

CRISP ASSURES HOOVER OF ACTION ON RELIEF
BY GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.
WASHINGTON, May 26.—Assurance was given President Hoover to-

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement dosen't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out twe pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad tasts and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amaxing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's nounced tonight by the two departments.

The agreement, at present, applies to 37 countries, including nearly all of the larger ones except Italy. It may be expanded to others later. The co-ordination program was inaugurated by President Hoover in 1929 and has been the subject of study for two years by state and commerce department officials.

500,000 a year and declared that "with the tax we are undertaking this program on an absolutely sound principle, for we are taxing the people to take care of the sinking fund."

Garner spoke to his colleagues for one hour and '15 minutes and at the conclusion asked all who favored his proposal to rise.

He said later, "I didn't see anybody sitting down."

"The house will pass this hill, or something like it long before it ever talks about adjournment," Garner said. "After it is reported out by the ways and means committee, probably next week, we democrats will caucus and we hope the democrats will caucus and we hope the democrats will vote to support the bill."

The measure removes restrictions on the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and gives it broad latitude in order that loans may be made to "aid in financing agriculture, commerce and industry and other products and to assist in the relief of unemployment."

uets and to assist in the relief of unemployment."

Authorized To Make Loans.

"The corporation is authorized and empowered to make loans upon such terms and condition not inconsistent with this act as it may determine, to any person," the bill specified. This includes advances to states and political subdivisions for productive public works such as toll bridges, water works and similar enterprises.

Loans may be made for a three-year period, but none may be made on foreign securities or acceptances, and in no case shall the amount of a loan exceed three and a third percent of the authorized capital stock of the corporation.

The Olyscen, bill beauthorized to the corporation.

The 91-page bill has seven parts and 361 sections, but most of it is occupied with the specific authorizations for public works.

It authorizes $568,782,000 in new construction and reauthorizes $478,-092,468 in previously approved public works which have not been appropriated for.

Among the big items in the measure which affect every section of the country are:

aside from being a master of the organ. Especially impressive was the rendition of "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" by the Washington High School chorus. The chorus sang many other spirituals under the capable leadership of Essie M. Groves. However, the high light of the program was the playing of "Rhapsody in Blue" by Jackson. The number by "George Gershwin marks an epic in American music with Gershwin blending the jazz with the classical music as Lizst blended the folk song of Hungary with the classical to create the "Hungarian Rhapsody." Jackson should reach the heights in music if given the opportunity. R. H. BRUMBY. WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL formal notice of his candidacy, and entry fee, to Miss Stella Akin at Savannah. A statement on Wednesday by former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick that he would not enter the senatorial contest was accepted as leaving Senator George without opposition.

In his appointment to the supreme court bench, Governor Russell turned again to Cairo and Grady county for an appointee. State Treasurer M. L. Ledford, who was named to succeed the late Captain W. J. Speer, is also from Cairo.

Since the Bell appointment is an honor to south Georgia, there was little surprise that the governor offered his court of appeals vacancy to a north Georgia jurist. Most of the gossip, however, had linked the probable appointment of Bell with the elevation from the Flynt circuit of Superior Court Judge G. Ogden Persons.

Judge I. Homer Sutton, of Clarkesville, teadered the court of appeals post, had the offer under consideration. His acceptance will leave a vacancy in the northeastern circuit.

The appointment of Judge Bell makes it necessary for the people to fill three posts on the court of appeals in the September primary. Judge O. H. B. Bloodworth is not a candidate to succeed himself and there are a number of aspirants for this place. Judge Alex W. Stephens recently announced that he was again a candidate and so far is unopposed.

Visiting Professors Miss Brown and Mr. Hedges Were Married on January 23

Mrs. Burke Osbourne Hedges, who before her marriage on January 23 was Miss Georgia Brown, beautiful daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Brown. The bride and bridegroom were enrolled as students at Ogle-thorpe University on the date that they motored to Center, Ala., to be married. Returning immediately thereafter to Atlanta, they determined to keep secret their wedding, and resumed their studies at the university, the news of the marriage only becoming known yesterday when the announcement was made by Dr. and Mrs. Brown. Mr. Hedges graduates from Oglethorpe University Sunday, May 29, and will receive his diploma at the First Presbyterian church. He is president of the senior class and is exceedingly popular with his classmates. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Hedges, of Havana, Cuba, who are in Atlanta to attend his graduation exercises. Dr. and Mrs. George Brown announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Georgia Brown, to Burke do Gobourne Hedges, of Havana, Cuba, the wedding having been quietly solemnized January 23, 1932, in Center, Ala. The announcement is of particular interest since both Mr. Hedges and his bride are students at Oglethorpe University, and he will receive his diploma as a member of this year's graduating class, while Mrs. Hedges is enrolled as a member of this year's graduating class, while Mrs. Hedges have been popular members of the junior class. Mr. and Mrs. Hedges have been popular members of the college set and the news of their marriage comes as a pleasant surprise to countless friends, in Atlanta and in Cuba, where the bridegroom makes his home.

Mrs. Hedges is taking an active part in the social life of the university and soorority and sponsor for the Delta Sigma Phi traternity. She possesses decided charm and is a representative of pioneer families of Georgia and New Hampshire. She is a grand-daughter of Dr. Meville Martin, beloved Atlanta surgeon who was noted for his work among the poor. Her maternal grandfather was Colonel William Harvill, pioneer resident of this city, who came south prior to the Civil War to establish his home. Unique Decorations and Costumes Featured at Pirate Club Ball

Miss Alley Weds Mr. West May 2.

The wedding of Miss Evalyne Walker Alley and Robert Lovick West, of Cartersville, will take place at high noon Saturday, May 28, at the First Baptist church on Peachtree street.

Forrest Hill Country Club was transformed into a treasure cave last evening for the annual costume ball given by the Pirate Club. Huge moss-covered boulders and overhanging cave walls were effected and indirect lighting gave the weird atmosphere of an underground cavern. Logs and stumps near the edges of the floor added to the rustic effect and skeletons and skulls decorated the walls. Black and white streamers completed the unusual decorations which formed an appropriate background for the gay costumes of the dancers.

Vari-colored satins and bright-hued silks fashioned the costumes of the gentlemen pirates and their ladies, who mingled with ruffians of the Spanish Main garbed in ragged shirts and shorts and carrying cutlasses and daggers, when the guests, several hundred members of the college set, portrayed the picturesque characters of bygone days. Miss Mary Cobb Humicutt, president of the club, wore a white satin blouse, with ragged finish, white velvet shorts and white velvet hat, the wide brim turned at a rakish angle. Completing her costume were high, white boots.

Preceding the dance members of the club at a progressive dinner. "And satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do." Only the sturdiest characters can withstand the temptations that go with a year's idleness. There is some healthy and restraining influence upon the mind in work, while idleness turns the mind into a breeding place for vice and furnishes the man with leisure in which evil thoughts can grow and bear fruit." Van Dyke's lines from the Toiling of Felix contain a deep philosophy:

"Heaven is blest with perfect rest
But the blessing of earth is toil."

Patently the husband is experiencing a physical infatuation which only time will reveal as such. But how is the wife to spend that intervening time? Alternating between hope and despair. "Pride," says Clemence Dane in Broom Stages, "is the weakest of all the passions." The woman's pride then must endure a slow crucifixion while she clings to her love for a worthless husband and lives on the hope and the expectation that she will surely have him back again.

If he insists on a divorce, then there is nothing the wife can, in generosity, do but give him the privilege of getting it. A woman can't hold on to her husband's love by keeping him chained in a marriage. She can't hold on to his respect if she denies him the divorce which by conduct and word of mouth he has asked of her. She should try to persuade him to give up the idea of divorce temporarily until he has had time to come to the realization that he must come to eventually.

FIRST SPORTS EACH DAY

Frank Stevenson, Americus Pro, Wins S.E.P.G.A. Title at Macon CRACKERS BEAT LOOKOUTS IN OPENER, 4 TO

Cecil Travis, the Fayetteville (Ga.) boy, stood just outside the clubhouse door yesterday afternoon and talked about base-

He is the kid who stepped from the Georgia sandlots to become a Southern association star with Chattanooga in one season. He is tagged for the big show and only injury can prevent him getting his try up there.

"I was awfully nervous at first," he said. "I couldn't think of anything but what I was doing wrong. Now I've learned that everyone makes errors and if I make ten I keep going along without worrying."

Travis is 18 years old. He will be 19 in August. Thus setting at rest reports which have had him 17 and even 16 years of age. Still, 18 is young enough.

"I like the Chattanooga team fine," he said. "They've all been great to me and tried to help me." A burst of singing came from the Chattanooga clubhouse.

"They are always singing and having a good time," said Travis. Winning ball clubs do that. The Lookouts walk like winners. There is a certain cockiness to the stride of players who are out in front or making a fight for the front position at the rail. There were quite a few Fayetteville people up to see Travis And he went down and visited the home folks last night.

Stood around the drug store and talked things over. All of which means that by today there will be new interest among the Fayetteville kids. Baseball will boom there. This is the first trip back home by the town hero since the season

"DUSTER" MAILS SPEAKS.

Duster Mails, the comic relief for the Lookouts, and a firstclass pitcher, is no comic so far as his antics off the field are concerned. One gathered that the Duster is putting away his coconuts, as the boys say, for a rainy day.

He finds the Southern league in advance of the Coast league, which is a double A, in so far as parks are con-cerned. And he finds not a great deal of difference in "This is a great league," he said. "The parks are all good ones. On the coast we had only two which could approach the ones in this league. And the baseball is about the same.

"I don't see why we can't all get going. The people still want to see baseball. The thing is to interest them. I'm almost serious when I say that within five years a to get a job. It's getting to be more and more of a show."

The Duster has organized a group of singers on the club that are pretty good. And he has developed some acts that would go well over the radio—in case anyone is interested. ball player who can't sing, or dance or act won't be able to get a job. It's getting to be more and more of a would go well over the radio-in case anyone is interested.

SOME DIFFICULTY.

Southern association owners are encountering difficulty in getting unified action on the proposed cut of players' salaries.

The Chattanooga club, which is drawing more people this year than it did last, very properly refuses to cut its players' salaries. The Nashville club is also understood to be balking at the idea. The Birmingham club is willing, but hasn't asked its players.

As long as the Chattanooga club is drawing more people than it did last year the owners cannot gracefully ask players to take a reduction even though there is no denying the fact that some of the clubs are operating slightly in the red.

Chattanooga is hit harder by the present economic condition than any city in the league. It is essentially a manufacturing town with large steel and iron plants. And they have been practically idle.

Chattanooga has the smallest population of any city in the league. The last census showed even Knoxville to have more population. Not all of them are awake it seems.

And yet this club can not only refuse to cut salaries, but will, if the club keeps up in the race, probably dis-tribute a few bonuses here and there where they are de-

It is very peculiar that the smallest city in the league should be able to make this a prosperous baseball year while the two largest cities fail. It would appear that the Chattanooga owners and officials are not fumbling.

Employees in practically every business have taken salary cuts. There is no real reason why the baseball players should not.

The players reply to that argument by stating they took reductions when they signed contracts at the request of the owners who saw a poor year ahead.

But there is still the object lesson of the Chattanoon club—ahead of last year in attendance. One cannot help wondering why other cities could not have made half wondering why other cities could not have made half the same progress.

The first month and a half finds the league's pigmy just played and a difficult par of 70 was not equaled either in the pro-amateur.

about carrying the league.

BERT NIEHOFF HAPPY.

Bert Niehoff, the manager of the Lookouts and one of the many good managers who have been with the Crackers in their past, declares he has no explanation for the success of his club. "We've just been hustling," he said. "I think I have a real ball club. They are all trying. We have no great stars, but just a lot of good players who work hard."

Niehoff is happy in his Chattanooga surroundings, but still regards Atlanta as home. He was accompanied here by Mrs. Niehoff. They are deservedly one of the most popular couples

VETERANS' AID VICTORY.

Check the veterans, particularly the two very valuable ones the Crackers have, Johnny Chapman and Si Rosenthal, for the aid given the Crackers in winning Thursday from Chattanooga. They upset the Lookouts' mental edge by telling them the new "dead" ball was in use. The Lookouts, unable to make the rain-wet ball travel, kept kicking and worrying about the ball—Allen Stewart. and lost the game.

Jones, Stribling Visitors at Macon

MACON, Ga., May 26.—Bobby Jones, retired golf champion, was a visitor at the annual southeastern professional golfers' tournament, which ended here this afternoon on the Idle Hour Country Club course. Jones watched a number of the three-somes before departing for Atlanta.

W. L. (Young) Stribling, who played in the pro-amateur event Tuesday afternoon, was another prominent spectator during the final 36 holes of play Thursday.

MACON, Ga., May 26.—Frank Stevenson, Americus, Ga., professional with four consistent rounds of 73, 74. 75 and 76—298—won the annual Southeastern Professional Golfers' championship tournament over the Idle Hour Country Club course here this afternoon. He beat one of the strongest fields ever to compete for the title.

Stevenson finished only one stroke ahead of Henry G. Picard, young Charleston stylist, who won second money, with Charles Hall, veteran Birmingham player and president of the National Professional Golfers Association, in third place. Errie Ball entered Thursday's play two strokes behind Stevenson, but a morning round of 83, in which his driving was decidedly off and his putting a bit shaky, threw away his chances. He rallied on the afternoon round, however, and finished seventh.

Stevenson played the most consistent of the entire field to win the crown. There was nothing spasmodic about his play and he carded his share of the birdies and pars and after the first 18 holes was always a pace or two in front of the field.

Fairley Clark carded the best front nine score when he posted a 33, two under par, Thursday afternoon and that was accomplished despite the loss of two strokes on an out-of-bound drive at the fifth.

It's simple, and doesn't differ in any great respect from the routine of any other fighter, except that I don't go out on the road and run miles and miles every day. I think a fighter can leave too much of his energy on the road.

I play a round of golf, 18 holes, then rest, and lunch at 1 o'clock. Lunch consists of two or three vegetables, including stewed rhubarb, a couple of chops and plenty of milk—about a quart. After this I rest again, and maybe play a game of solitaire. I do not care particularly for other card games.

The bout had not one atom of significance except, possibly, to keep Walker's finger in the heavyweight championship pie. Mickey is slated to meet the Sharkey-Schmeling winner, either this autumn or next spring. The United Press score sheet gave four rounds to Walker, five to Paulino and one round was termed even. The pair fiddled and jabbed for six rounds. In the seventh Paulino set out to supply some action and landed lefts and rights to the head that made Walker stagger. Paulino also had much the better of the eighth round. He scored a direct hit with an overhand right to the head, and pursued the advantage by making Mickey diszy with rights to the chin. So diszy was Walker that he socked Paulino full in the face after the bell.

Walker did not seem to be 27 pounds lighter than Paulino, but the official weights were Paulino 197 and Walker 170.

"We got off to a nice start and every man came through for me," says Bert, speaking of his hustling team, He has been fairly fortunate on his men. For example, there was Cliff Bolton, the catcher. In the spring he looked far from impressive and actually a little awkward back of the plate. But once the old bell rang. Bolton became a hitting and throwing machine. Danny Bloxom, Niehoff's shortstop, who, by the way, is a big league prospect, didn't cost the club a penny. Engel signed him as a free agent. Wednesday, Bloxom got four hits off Nashville pitchers—two doubles, a triple and a home run. He has been hitting that way all season. Bonowitz, picked up from Knoxville, came through in great style as an outfielder, and young Travis more than lived up to the promise he showed at the fag end of last season.

It's a wonderfully balanced team, and Niehoff never worries about an opposing pitcher passing one of his hitters to get to a weaker one. There aren't any weak ones.

Niehoff, who always built attendance wherever he managed, still wonders at the gealus of Joe Engel. "I never saw anything like him," Bert says of his chieftain.

Engel's latest stunt was to dig out an ancient hack of 1492 vintage to ballyhoo a Sunday game. He and Niehoff rode in state down the street. The game pulled out 8,000 fans. Not long ago some rusties from the backwoods of Tennessee came to Chattanooga to see a game. By Jimmy Jones. That menacing roll of thunder that came along about the fifth inning yesterday when the Crackers were going one run ahead of Chattanooga, presaged a full fledged determination that hit the visiting dugout in the ninth when the erstwhile meek men of Barron toppled the Lookouts from the league lead and won the ball game, 4 to 3,

The tension of a 3-3 tie was relieved with one out when Bobby Goff whacked a short fly to right field and the Lilliputian left-hander. Bunny Hearn, legged it home from third after the catch with the run that cinched his own victory.

An so effective was Hearn's pitching throughout that Bert Niehoff, the Lookouta' skipper, asked for an inspection of the hall to see if it was the "dead" variety that Hearn was throwing. Red Barron insisted that it was the same old ball, the only apparent difference lying in Hearn's improved pitching. At any rate, the inspection helped inject some of the long absent color into Ponce de Leon exhibitions.

It was Mr. Hearn, incidentally, who started the descendancy of the Lookouts in favor of their close pursuers, the Memphis Chies. The wee Bunny walked to the plate as the second batter in the ninth with a hint of wrath on his features. He had just seen the Lookouts edged up from behind a 3-2 margin that his team had given him to get a run in their half of the ninth.

HEARN SINGLES.

HEARN SINGLES.

After Clarley Rowland grounded out, Hearn looked carefully at one of Hank Hulvey's pitches and pasted it vengefully over second for a single. Red Barron arose to meet the issue and sent him to third by rapping a double against the left-field fence. Goff came to bat and the Lookouts held a huddle around Bert Niehoff to get his plan of procedure.

There was little logic in walking Goff with the hope of getting a double play when the hard-hitting Si Roseuthal was coming up behind him against a right-handed pitcher. Hulvey pitched two balls cautiously outside and then steamed one down the slot to Goff. The second baseman, who has broken up several games for the Crackers by hitting in the clutch, lifted a fly to Johnny Gill in short right. The latter's throw home was none too direct and Hearn made it in, winning the first game of the series.

There was plenty of thunder in the struggle and not all of it was atmospheric. Some of it was vocal. For these things, Bert, who is always appreciative, is most thankful. All he wants is 50 per cent of the breaks on injuries and he thinks he can beat out Memphis and Birmingham in what looks like a three-team race.

Niehoff confesses that he wants to win a pennant for the good people of Chattanooga and Joe Engel even worse than he wanted to win for Mobile and Atlanta. Engel, whom Niehoff sums up as "a great guy," has spent his money freely to give the city a winper and the public has turned out enthusiastically.

Braves Toppled From Lead by Phils; Sluggers Are Busy.

five-hit ball to blank the Nationals, 5 to 0.

Meanwhile the lead changed hands in the National league as the Boston Braves lost, 17 to 13, to the Philadelphia Phillies, and were replaced in top position by the idle Chicago Cubs. Lou Gehrig's heroic drive came in the sixth inning, with two out and the bases filled. Gehrig sent the ball sailing over the right field wall, accounting for four runs. General Alvin Crowder was attempting his seventh victory for Washington. Despite the sixth-inning rally, he allowed only seven hits.

FOXX HITS HOMER.

Jimmy Foxx blasted out his fif-teenth home run of the season as Phil-adelphia's Athletics downed the lowly Boston Red Sox, 7 to 1. Rain halted the game at the end of the sixth in-ning. Foxx's homer came in the first inning with Mickey Cochrane on base. Max Bishop also homered for the A's in this frame. George Earnshaw limit-ed the Sox to four hits.

Detroit won the first game of a scheduled double-header from the Chicago White Sox, 11 to 2, and the nighteap was called off in the middle of the fifth inning because of rain. Since the contest was called in the middle of the inning with the score tied at 1-all, the game reverted to the fourth inning, making the game unofficial.

AL LOPEZ SCORES.

Johnny Frederick's single with Al. Lopez on second broke up a pitchers' battle between William Watson Clark and Carl Hubbell and gave Brooklyn a 3-to-2 victory in 12 innings over the New York Giants. It was a hard game for Hubbell to lose, he struck out 15 men and allowed but nine hits to Clark's 11. The Dodgers threw away a run in the sixth when it was discovered Lopez had batted out of turn, after he had driven Cuccinellohome with a single. O'Doul homered for Brooklyn.

Red Lucas ended his five-game winning streak when the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Cincinnati Reds. 3 to 2. This victory moved the Pirates past the Giants into fifth place. Harris and Swift allowed the Reds eight hits, while Lucas yielded only six.

They were the only games scheduled.

I asked him what he considered Max Schmeling's main qualifications as a title holder, and the ex-champion was direct in his reply.

"Here is the way," he said, "I would list Schmeling's main points:

"1. I think he is dead game.

"2. He is cool and collected under fire.

"3. He is one of the determined type who is hard to discourage.

"4. He can take his share of punishment without quitting.

"5. He is a fair boxer and a fair puncher."

"You don't rank him, then, as a heavy hitter?" I asked Gene. "How about that right hand?"

"I wouldn't rank him among the hard punchers for this reason—he can hit and hurt any man coming to him. That isn't difficult. But he isn't clever enough or fast enough to maneuver an opponent into position where a damaging punch can be landed. This is the real test. Schmeling is an effective body puncher who can wear his man down. But so far as punching alone goes, I don't believe he is as hard a puncher or as clever an offensive machine as Sharkey is-when Sharkey is at his Tunney believes Schmeling's best chance rides upon gameness, durabil-ity, coolness, condition and determina-tion. These are always vital factors.

Tunney has a keen eye for the psychological aspects at the ringside. For example, he picked Stribling to beat Schmeling, basing his opinion on the Georgian's greater speed, boxing ability and experience. Yet when both Stribling and Schmeling entered the ring at Cleveland last July, Tunney turned almost immediately and said. "Schmeling will win."

NEW YORK, May 26 .- (UP)-Confronted with an unprecedented shortage of funds, Avery Brundage, president of the Amateur Athletic Union, today ordered a reduction in the size of the United States Olympic the size of the United States Olympic teams.

This action followed a meeting of the American Olympic finance committee, to which Treasurer George W. Graves, of Detroit, reported that only $34,479 had been raised toward the quota of $350,000.

America's representation at the Los Angeles Olympic games originally had been planned to include about 350 men and about 40 women. Because of the unexpected insufficiency of funds, members of the Olympic committee estimate that a cut of at least 25 per cent will be necessary.

President Brundage's order to 20 subcommittees throughout the United States carried no set figure for the cut. It merely told the officials to prune to the bone.

Stocks pulled out of their slump today with a rally that more than cancelled many early losses of 1 to 5 reined many early losses of 1 to 5 points.

The market closed fractionally higher, on the average, thanks to brisk afternoon covering stimulated, apparently, by Washington advices to the effect that congress appeared more kindly disposed to a sales tax.

Bonds were discouragingly weak, probably because of further loan collateral liquidation.

Tobacco and food shares had to take most of the morning selling, although by noon utilities, chemicals, rails and merchandising issues were feeling the pinch.

However, United States Steel and American Can resisted, which doubtless had something to do with the increasing dullness that preceded the upturn.

Although to some observers the market seemed to have worked itself into an uncomfortably oversold position, brokers believed it was more than a coincidence that the rally fitted so nicely with sales tax gossip.

EXCHANGE SUSPENDS MEMBER FOR YEAR

NEW YORK, May 26.—(P)—The New York Stock Exchange took its most drastic action today against a member for bear activity thus far in the 21-2-year decline.

Daniel Manning McKeon, a private floor trader, was suspended for one year, under provisions of the consti-tution forbidding the offering of stock in a manner designed to demoralize the market.

The announcement said that although McKeon's offers "were not accepted and did not cause a decline in prices," he was found guilty of the charges by the governing committee.

McKeon was a private trader and was admitted to membership on March 1, 1929. He made his office with Drysdale & Co. but was not a member of that firm.

The immediate effect was a gen-eral market drop of eight points but quotations recovered later.

Brokers' Views

NEW YORK, May 26.—Announcement of suspension of payment by one of the oldest and most prominent commission houses in Liverpool resulted in heavy hedging and liquidation in that market this morning with cables 13 to 15 American points lower than due and also precipitated some 20,000 to 25,000 bales in New York during first few minutes of trading. These were taken by Liverpool atraddlers at New Orleans, speculative shorts, spot houses, local professionals and brokers with far eastern connections. After these offerings had been absorbed the market developed a better tone and recovered a major part of earlier loss under scattered trade buying and speculative covering prompted by scition of the market itself and by reversal of trend of securities on advices from Washington indicating brighter prospects for adoption of manufacturers' sales tax in lieu of excise taxes already voted.

The market, in our opinion, is in an excellent technical position to respond to any favorable outside news of any unfavorable developments affecting the new crop.

NEW YORK, May 26.—After acting weak most of the day the wheat market rallied sharply in the latter part of the session and recovered large portion of the day's losses. Early weakness was in aympathy with fresh declines in the stock market and failure of Liverpool to follow our advance yesterday. However, the market held firm during our early break and relation between the two markets was improved at the time they closed. There were further generous rains in the southwest as well as northwest and Canada but much colder weather was predicted with possible freezing temperatures tonight extending as far south as Kansas if weather clears. We continue to feel the market is building a foundation for a good advance.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Foreign exchanges showed easing tendencies against the dollar today. Dutch guilders sagged 3 points. French francs reacted nominally and Swiss francs eased, although all remained above solid avone layels.

ada is expected to show a decrease of nearly 1,000,000.

Italian government restrictions on use of foreign wheat have brought a heavy decline in importations during the last 10 months.

In that period only 16,608,483 bushels was imported, compared with 61,870,394 bushels for the corresponding period of the previous year.

The restrictions were applied directly to milling, in the form of a fixed percentage of domestic grain which millers were obliged to use in grinding flour. The result was so successful that the home crop ran short this year and a gradual easing of the ban has become necessary.

Highlights of Wall Street

BY CHARLES W. STORM, Editor, the News Service of Wall Street.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Hopes run high again in Wall Street that the manufacturers' sales tax will be introduced in the senate and passed there, and that it even might be adopted by the house.

'This, together with the withdrawal of selling orders, resulted in a substantial rally in the general stock market today. Average prices rose about a point in the industrial group.

Improvement in the general list, however, did not occur until after numerous new low records were established during the forenoon trading. These low prices, especially those for the so-called depression-proof issues, resulted from a continuation of necessitous liquidation which has been filtering into the market for some time.

One of the largest and most promi-cessitous liquidation which has been filtering into the market for some time.

One of the largest and most prominent of the life insurance companies was reported as a substantial seller of stocks during the period when the market was the weakest today.

Reassuring reports relative to the stability of this company, however, together with the revival of hopea regarding the manufacturers' sales tax, accounted for the inception of a substantial rally which was maintained throughout the afternoon dealings.

General Motors showed early heaviness and was offered in liberal volume because of an unfavorable interpretation of the statement by the president of the corporation that under existing conditions it is more important to maintain a position of impregnable strength and that it is illogical to expect any change in trend until a foundation is built for improvement in confidence.

The Street considered this statement a step toward preparing the general public for omission of the dividend on the common stock, and his naturally found reflection in du Pont, which has a huge investment in General Motors stock.

NEW YORK, May 26.—(P) A sweeping decline in the curb market, centering in the utilities, was checked in the late trading today, and some of the more active issues recovered.

Turnover of 270,000 shares was the largest in more than a month. The number of active issues swelled! to about 300, or nearly double that of many recent dull sessions.

The turn in the late trading recent many recent dull sessions.

The turn in the late trading was inspired by the covering movement on the big board.

In the utilities, Electric Bond & Share closed at 6 3-4, for a net gain of 1-2. Duke Power lost 2 1-2.

The more thinly traded industrials showed some further sharp declines.

BOY ATTACKS PARENTS, TRIES TO END OWN LIFE

TRIES TO END OWN LIFE

WADESBORO, N. C., May 26.—

(P)—A farm boy ran amuck here early today, seriously wounded his father and mother with a razor and then tried to commit suicide.

Philip Jordan, 24, after slashing the throat of his father, W. H. Jordan, 62, turned on his mother, who lay sleeping by her husband, but the aged woman sprang from the bed and held the youth until other members of the household came to her assistance. The youth, believed to be temporarily demented, was lodged in jail, where police said he tried to kill himself by butting the wall of his cell. He was stopped before he had seriously injured himself.

DELAY SEEN IN VOTE

ON JUDGE WILKERSON WASHINGTON, May 26.—(P)— For this session at least, it is now unlikely that the senate will confirm the nomination of Judge James H. Wilkerson to the United States cir-

Wilkerson to the United States circuit court.

Sentencer of Al Capone, the gang lord, Wilkerson has been under fire of labor organization for past decisions they regard as unfair and oppressive. The judiciary subcommittee which has studied the nomination all through this session, finally asked the jurist to appear for a personal statement on his past acts and views. He advised this group yesterday that he will not be able to come for several weeks because of a long and important case now before him. Members of the committee indicated they would not vote on the nomination before hearing him.
